MISS SCHAPER ENTERTAINS

The "announcement" entertainment given by Miss Lillie Schaper last Wednesday afternoon at her home on Newton street, was one of the largest and most pleasant social events of the season and was greatly enjoyed by a house full of invited guests. Everything for the entertainment of those present was most happily planned, especially the announcement. A large bed of roses was arranged in the middle of the table and at the proper time a lady stepped out and selected from among them a bouquet to which the following was attached:

We roses are full of a secret,
Which our petals are trembling to tell,
For roses are just like all girls,
They don't keep their secrets well.
The Lily is true is so lately,
Her cheek is like snow and as pure,
But the secret we hide in this basket,
Would make our Lily blush we are sure.

She has plead with us "Please keep my secret,"
But we know it and tell it we will,
And great pleasure we have in announcing,
The engagement of Hyal and Lill.

Of course we all understand the "Lillie" means one of our most popular and pretty young members of society, Miss Lillie Schaper and the "Hyal" our young wholesale groceryman, Mr. Hyal Hirsch who recently came from Boonville and is rapidly coming to the front among our rising young men. About half past four a splendid luncheon was served, after which the ladies left for their homes long to remember the splendid time all had. About seventy five were invited whose names we have not been able to get.

Crewson & Harrison are doing some mining seven miles southwest of town and while they have not hit it big they are getting some mighty encouraging signs and shines:

Oh were you never a miner
And didn't you ever mine,
And feel that animation
Each time you hit a shine?

And every pay day, "miners"
Shows the last they found,
And how the ground below them
Has such a "dum-dum" sound.

How the ground seems pitching
Right towards a "hanging" wall

And how some flour and bacon
Will help to find it all?

Just give me a pick and shovel
About thirty feet of rope;
Where's anything that equals
A miners everlasting hope?

At the M. E. Church Sunday

Have you a happy home? Come to the Methodist church next Sunday at eleven o'clock and hear the sermon on "The Religion of Home." We have received a great deal of praise and much criticism on this sermon. Come and hear it and tell us what you think of it.

Evening subject: "Jesus the way."
The morning sermon is the beginning of a series on "Personal Responsibility," will you not hear all of them.

The picture made of the Choir, Sunbeams, Preachers ect. at the Presbyterian church is a fine one and proves Mahan an artist. No fault can be found with the picture except Prof. Johns is hanging on to his hat like grim death. Looks like he was afraid some Presbyterian would swipe it.

We will celebrate on the fourth.

At a mass meeting held at the court house last Tuesday evening it was decided to have a regular old fashioned Fourth of July Celebration. For some time the citizens of Versailles have been going away from home to spend the Fourth and now we are going to give the other fellow a chance to have a time with us. The following committees were appointed to make the necessary arrangements. Judge Daniels was made permanent Chairman and T. P. Bond permanent Secretary. Committee on program, F. D. Harrison, C. F. Kerdell and J. H. Hughes. Com. on privileges Paul Sparlock, Otto Lutz and C. D. Hunter. Com. on fire works Roy Thorpe, D. C. Hardy Sr. and P. H. Antweiler. Com. on amusements Ed Nelson C. H. Mason and A. F. Zimmersheid. Com. on parade John J. Jones, J. H. Hughes and J. A. Petty. Com. on grounds F. A. White, E. A. Crewson and E. P. Varnell. Com. on Finance M. L. Joachimi, G. M. Hargett and F. C. Thorpe. Com. on Music Frank Witten, C. W. Kavanaugh and Fred Nichols. Com. on decoration H. A. Young, Robert Childers and D. C. Hardy Jr. Com. on speaking A. L. Ross, I. C. Legere and P. G. Woods. More will be said regarding this in the future. Let us all pull together to make this one of the BIG Fourth of Versailles.

The Kinloch family, that part of it that is rusticating in the strawberry country, have made themselves solid with the "office force" and from this on we will have only good things to say of them. They have sent us a case of strawberries that are certainly "Peaches." The girl that had the racket with the rooster made most of them into jam for next winter but we all got a generous share and they certainly hit the spot.

Frank White is a full fledged candidate for the legislature and has filled the necessary papers. We will have more to say a little further on. Of course White knows where the Republican stands as to his candidacy.

The more that evangelists come here and preach, the more and more we hark back to the dear little blond haired and mild mannered man that we failed to appreciate when here. The man who inspired men to do right because he was right himself. The man whose whole life was an inspiration and a benediction. The man who did not try to drive, but the man whose very goodness made you listen, as he told the better way and made us all want to go that way. that we might be in his company and have his blessed influence. The man who won through kindness, love and reason. How the tears start in our eyes, when we realize our lack of appreciation of him and his loving kindness for and to everybody. Stevenson is dead but his sweet memory steals over us like the soft evening breeze from the harvest field and we are sorry when we realize his like will never come again.

Whatever good come or may come from the meetings held here at the Presbyterian church, Rev. Orr and his good wife are deserving for that part where the hard work had to be done. If it had not been for them there would have been no meetings, or at least not more than one week. They had the big end of the double tree all the way through. Many that want things the most get stalled at the foot of the hill first. Our pastor and wife keep Pulling all the time.

One of the most pleasant entertainments given the ladies of Versailles this season, was that given by Mrs. H. K. Enloe of Jefferson City, at the residence of her Father and Mother, Phillip Dampf and wife, last Wednesday afternoon from two to five. There was a large number present whose names we have not had time to get, but all report a splendid time. "Guessing" "Spelling and other amusing contests filled in the time until about half past four when a luncheon was spread, which according to reports, makes a fellows mouth water to think of. At five o'clock the guests left with the best wishes for the fair hostess who leaves for her home the first of next week.

Coming

Rev. U. Grant Houston, who was baptised in the river Jordan by Dr. T. Dewitt Talmage, will deliver a short address, on the subject "Over Jordan" at The Airdome Monday, June 10th. He will show you over two hundred curios, specimens and relics from the Holy Land, describing them with his illustrated lecture with the aid of some very beautiful Besize slides.

Rev. Houston comes to us recommended by Wm. Jennings Bryan, by the presidents of Yale, and Harvard of which school he was a student, and by many noted people.

His lecture will be of great interest, and very instructive the curiosities and relics from the Holy land alone are well worth the price of admission. This additional entertainment along with the regular three reel program at the Airdome next Monday night.

Do not miss this rare treat.

The Airdome opening.

The Royal Theatre Airdome opened Monday night June 3rd. to an enormous crowd, featuring Cinderella.

Two comfortable, and commodious structure was a pleasant surprise to the hundreds of patrons of the Royal, and the entertainment being given at the Airdome is most excellent. The pictures are the very best that can be obtained, and are the brightest pictures we have ever seen, which is due to the new patent silveroid picture screen which they are thrown on.

The music is of a very high order, well executed, and very pleasing indeed. The seating arrangement is extremely comfortable, the sawdust carpet insures cleanliness, and the "sky dome" for a roof permits the circulation of all the good pure air one could ask for.

The lightening scheme is beautiful indeed, a string of tiny incandescent lamps bordering the entire structure, diffusing a soft mellow light throughout the entire structure.

It was feared by some that owing to the close proximity to the Christian, and Methodist churches, the entertainment at the Airdome would annoy. But we think it has proven conclusively Monday night that it was practically impossible to disturb the services of either church, so long as the entertainment at the Airdome is conducted along the same orderly lines.

All kinds of crops are coming to the front rapidly and from present appearances, Morgan county is going to have one of the best all round seasons in her history. All kinds of fruit trees, except peaches, are now bending under the weight of the young fruit and much of it will have to be picked off.

Miss Edna Abell left Versailles out this vacation and went off down in the El Dorado Springs country where her people live. She no doubt had
